

Comparing NetDocuments Functionality Among Supported Web Browsers

	Internet Explorer 	Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge 	Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge
Option/Feature	With ActiveX add-on	With ndOneClick extension	Without ndOneClick extension
Create New	Users will have a “blank document” option under “New”. This will create a new document profile, and then open the document in its native application for editing	Only available with Office Online	Only available with Office Online
Upload Document	When Uploading files, documents can be Moved (removed from PC) or Copied (copy remains on PC). Email messages will be parsed so header details can be extracted	When uploading documents, users will only have the option to Copy the document, not Move it	When uploading documents, users will only have the option to Copy the document, not Move it
ndOffice	With the ActiveX installed, users can open documents directly from the web; they will be handed off to ndOffice	With ndOneClick installed, users can open documents directly from the web; they will be handed off to ndOffice	When clicking on a document, the browser will provide an online preview of the content with a Download and Check Out button
Desktop Email Integration (MAPI)	Email Link and Email Copy options can be enabled to use MAPI email applications such as Outlook	Email Link may work in some cases, but is not officially supported. Email Copy is not available	Email Link may work in some cases, but is not officially supported. Email Copy is not available
Automatically Check In/Out	Documents can be automatically checked out and opened for editing. A copy is only temporarily downloaded and can be automatically uploaded and checked in. *Any closed documents will be automatically checked in when navigating to a different page, or if the document has been handed off to ndOffice	Documents can be automatically checked out and opened for editing. A copy is only temporarily downloaded and can be automatically uploaded and checked in. Users must click the Check-in button to check in the document, unless the document has been handed off to ndOffice	Not available, unless using the Office 365 Integration (also available in any browser)
Manually Check In/Out	Manually checked-out documents and automatically checked-out documents will be listed separately in the check-in list	Manually checked-out documents and automatically checked-out documents will be listed separately in the check-in list	Only manually checked out documents will be listed in the check-in list

	Internet Explorer 	Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge 	Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge
Option/Feature	With ActiveX add-on	With ndOneClick extension	Without ndOneClick extension
Echo folder	An echo folder is a local folder used for disaster recovery. Checked out documents are copied to this folder for quicker retrieval	Documents are stored in a temporary location. Retention period cannot be set	Not available
Legacy Application Integrations	Users can install integrations for MS Office applications that allow documents to be saved directly into NetDocuments	Not available	Not available
Auto Import Folder	Users can set up a local folder that imports files to NetDocuments when they are moved to this folder	Not available	Not available
Drag-and-Drop upload	Documents can be imported via drag-and-drop	Documents can be imported via drag-and-drop	Documents can be imported via drag-and-drop
Opening/Viewing Documents	Documents can be viewed using Review, View in Browser, or opened with a Ctrl+Click	Documents can be viewed using Review, View in Browser, or opened with a Ctrl+Click	Documents are opened for viewing within the browser. Additional options include an online editor, Review, or View in Browser
Desktop Scanner Connector	Users can scan items directly from a local scanning device directly to NetDocuments	Not available	Not available
Auto Login	Available if enabled with Active Directory, or available with Certificate-based login	Not available (unless using federated identity)	Not available (unless using federated identity)
Print	Users will have the option to Print a document under More Options	Users will have the option to Print a document under More Options	Not available
Send to Application	Users have the ability to send documents to a third party comparison application (such as Workshare)	Only built-in options such as "Append Version" are available	Only built-in options such as "Append Version" are available