

Vail School District
1st Grade
Writing PRACTICE Benchmark
#1 Functional

3W C3-G1 PO 1. Write a variety of functional text (e.g., classroom rules, letters, experiments, recipes, notes/messages, labels, directions, posters, graphs/tables).

Student Prompt:

Think about your after school routine. What things do you do everyday when you get home from school?

Goal

Tell the students that today they will plan and then write and draw about their after school routine.

You will need

Whiteboard or chart paper

Student response sheets

Writing materials (pencils, markers, crayons)

Discussion:

Take several moments to let students talk about their after school routine.

Pre-write/Plan:

Use the whiteboard or large chart paper to make a class web on their after school routine. Include specific habits they have developed.

Introduce Activity:

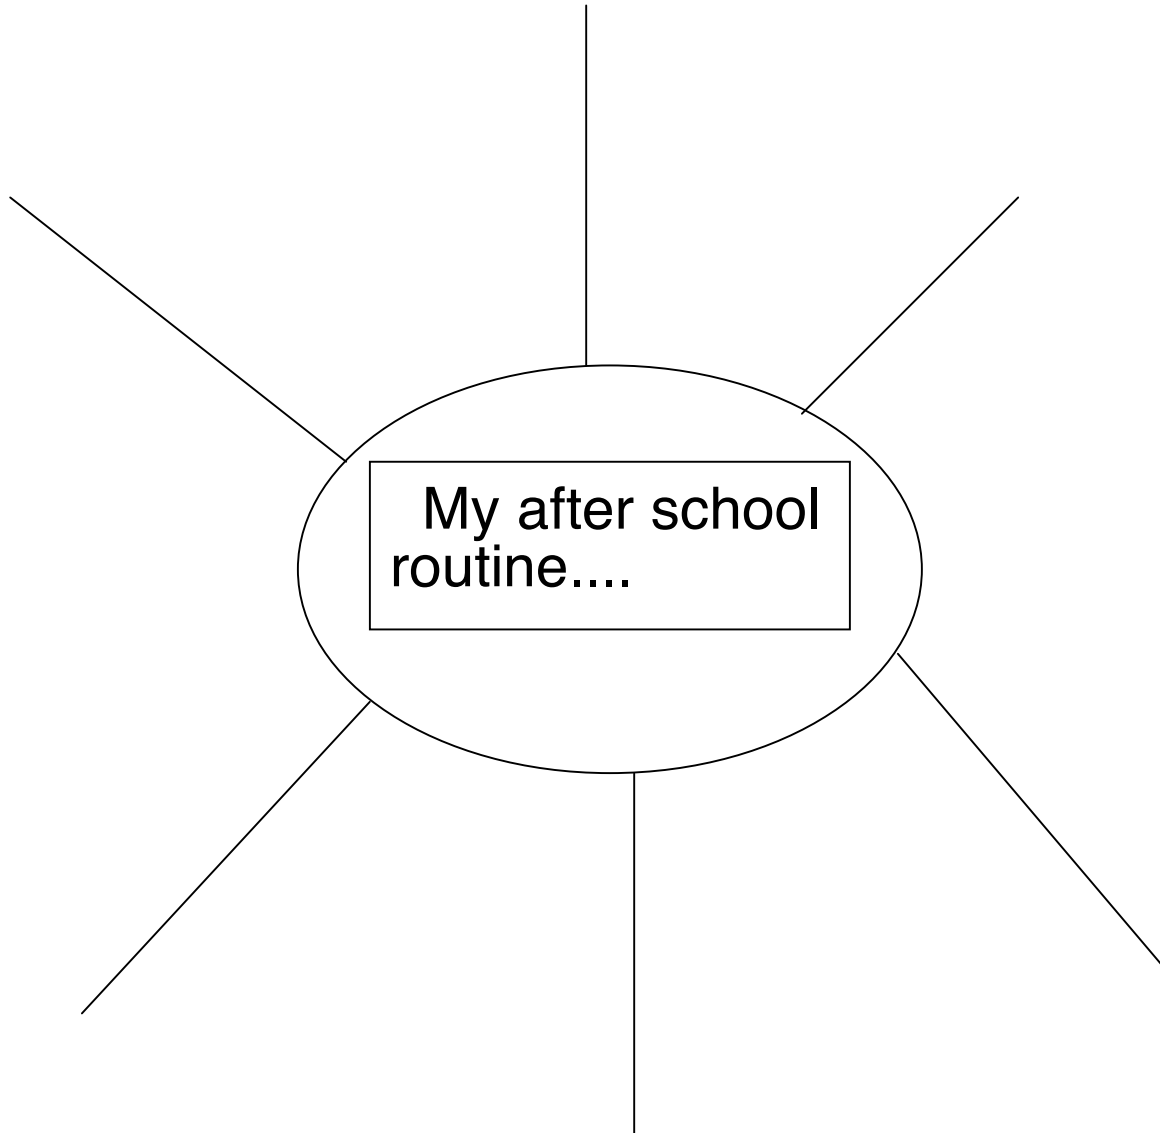

Show the students the response sheets and read the prompt at the top. Tell students that they will make a plan about their after school routine. Allow the students a short time to talk about their after school routine with you and their classmates. Ask them to put 4 things in their web and then use the back side of the page to write and draw about the routine they have after school.

Activity: Un-timed. Must be completed in one day.

Evaluation: Assess with Primary Developmental Rubric. Prompt developed with the above benchmark objectives in mind:

Prewriting/Planning –

Make a Web with things you do after school. Then write and draw all about your ideas.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of multiple sets of horizontal lines. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, providing a guide for letter height and placement.

This image shows a blank sheet of handwriting practice paper. It features multiple sets of horizontal lines designed to guide letter formation. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The sets are arranged vertically down the page, providing a template for practicing consistent letter height and placement.